

Editorial:

All of us who have experience in cross-cultural context know it well: “Issues of cross-cultural nature matter much.” The focus this time is on issues of cross-cultural nature because of the Great Commission involves many nations and people-groups. We are grateful for Doug Coleman & Jackson Wu serving as “guest editors” for this issue.