DIASPORA MISSIOLOGY FOR GLOBAL MISSIOLOGY

PROLOGOMENA

We are living on the crest of a wave that could be called a NEW ADVENTURE IN CHRISTIAN MISSIONS!

It is the 21st Century! We are Christians in the 21st Century! People all over the world are moving all over the world. Many of these people are displaced by war, famine, political and religious oppression, and a variety of personal reasons showing their pursuit of a “better life.”

People who are moving and scattered around the world away from their homelands constitute diasporas. Diaspora is a word used for people groups that are displaced from the lands of origin or even cities of origin. However, many if not most of the people who scatter around the world will not necessarily be displaced from their beliefs and cultural characteristics. They take them with them wherever they go, just as you and I would do with our beliefs. In this Diaspora Journal you will be provided with a variety of weblinks, both Christian and non-Christian. You will find useful materials for your research, your studies, and for your outreaches to the vast and varied Diasporas around your locale.

The Diaspora Journal originated with the vision of Enoch Wan, PhD. Our innovative, courageous, passionate brother in Christ has started this Journal to provide a unique resource to the Body of Christ for reaching the Diasporas around the world. It is now being expanded to meet more needs as they arise.

CHRISTIAN RESOURCES JOURNALS

Journal of Eastern Christian Studies, Peeters Online Journals, Volume 54, issue 1-2, 2002

Middle Eastern Christians and Migration, Migration of Middle Eastern Christians to Western Countries and Protestant Missionary Activities in the Middle East, The Challenge of the Diaspora as Reflected in a Coptic Sunday School, The Coptic Orthodox Religious Regimes in the Diaspora

The Journal of Eastern Christian Studies, (formerly Het Christelijk Oosten), Faculty of Theology, Periodical of the Institute of Eastern Christian Studies at Nijmegen in collaboration with the Faculty of Theology and the Institute of Early Christian and Byzantine Studies at the Catholic University of Leuven. It publishes studies and reports on the traditions and present-day situation of the Eastern and Oriental Christian churches in the Middle East, Central and Eastern Europe, and the Balkans, as well as on current developments in the Diaspora. http://www.theo.kuleuven.be/page/publ_jeast/
An internal diaspora has been created by the death of parents and families due to AIDS as they leave children behind.
