

DIASPORA MISSIOLOGY FOR GLOBAL MISSIOLOGY

PROLOGOMENA

We are living on the crest of a wave that could be called A NEW ADVENTURE IN CHRISTIAN MISSIONS!

It Is the 21st Century! We are Christians in the 21st Century! People all over the world are moving all over the world. Many of these people are displaced by war, famine, political and religious oppression, and a variety of personal reasons showing their pursuit of a “better life.”

People who are moving and scattered around the world away from their homelands constitute diasporas. Diaspora is a word used for people groups that are displaced from the lands of origin or even cities of origin. However, many if not most of the people who scatter around the world will not necessarily be displaced from their beliefs and cultural characteristics. They take them with them wherever they go, just as you and I would do with our beliefs. In this Diaspora Journal you will be provided with a variety of weblinks, both Christian and non-Christian. You will find useful materials for your research, your studies, and for your outreaches to the vast and varied Diasporas around your locale.

The Diaspora Journal originated with the vision of Enoch Wan, PhD. Our innovative, courageous, passionate brother in Christ has started this Journal to provide a unique resource to the Body of Christ for reaching the Diasporas around the world. It is now being expanded to meet more needs as they arise.
