

Retracing the Memory Path

Dean Gilliland

Sr. Professor, SIS,
Fuller Theological Seminary

During Paul's years at Fuller we bonded as missionaries and mission family. As colleagues in missiology I could list much that I learned from Paul, -insights that enriched my own understanding and made me a better teacher. I have lost a confidant, creative scholar-friend and honored brother in Christ.

Published in the special issue “A Memoriam of Paul G. Hiebert”
www.globalmissiology.org April 1, 2007