You have permission to send whatever I have forwarded on to you. EMS had a meeting here today and I hear did a wonderful tribute to Dr. Hiebert, and read his "Shorts and ..." article

Thanks Enoch, by the way can anyone get the article coming out April 1st?? I'd like to send the link to friends. (…personal notes deleted)

Dear Enoch,

Thank you so much for the update on Paul Hiebert. He is a dear brother, America's foremost anthropologist and one from whom all of us have learned a great deal.

I would like to write him. Could you send me an email or mailing address so that I can write him? (...personal notes deleted)

A Blessed Christmas to you and yours,

Roger Greenway

Dear Enoch.

Thanks for sharing this news. I am in India as I write, the very place Paul served and I thank God for his life and ministry and impact on so many of our lives. I praise God he went peacefully and in triumph to his Lord. God bless you Enoch. Warmly in Christ. Mike Pocock

Enoch,

I wish I could find time to give honor to Paul Hiebert in this way. I cannot, however, add anything more to my schedule in the near term.

I feel the loss of this great mentor! (...personal notes deleted)

Blessings,

Dear Enoch,

Thank you for sharing this news with us. It's wonderful you had so many good visits with Paul over these last few weeks. May you know His peace, comfort and hope at this time. Blessings in your ministry in equipping those who will carry Paul's torch/vision into the next generation - perhaps the completion generation! John Newman

Thank you so much for your immediate encouraging response, Enoch. The photo of Paul that was in Dan Shaw's tribute was one I took in 1981 when I first met the Hieberts. Paul and Fran used one of my Folk Religion course papers for their book Case Studies for Missionaries and I was thrilled (to say the least). I also had the privilege of organizing the Hiebert farewell from Fuller, with numerous dishes from Indian students and Indian foods.

I refer to Paul as a "gentle giant". Dan and I arrive in Ellicott City this Sunday evening for a week speaking with the Perspectives course – we had so hoped to visit with Dr. Hiebert, but it was not to be.

Thank you, Enoch! I am grateful for your sharing Paul's cell phone number, as I was able to speak with him a week ago. Even then, he was ever the encourager! - Sam Larsen

Enoch,

Although it is difficult to say goodbye to such a wonderful colleague and example, I rejoice with family and friends, as well as all of his mission friends, for his victorious entry into heaven. May we be found faithful and follow him when our turn comes!

Thank you for keep us posted.

Blessings on you, his dear friend.

Eunice

Dear Enoch,

I don't think I'm in a position to write because I have only read 2 books by him and know very little about him as a person.

Last month I sent you two papers written by my students as group projects on urban mission. Have you received them?

Thanks, Enoch, for keeping us informed. It's such a blessing to rest in the memory of a full and fulfilling life and in the knowledge of a bright future with our Lord.
